DAIRY SNACK

Quarky whole-milk snack bars taste like creamy cheesecake, only they are frozen and dunked in chocolate. Some of us couldn't get enough of them, others weren't so rapt. Free of additives and retaining a hint of tartness, choose from caramel, blueberry, vanilla and chocolate. At supermarkets, RRP $7.99.

Slick infusion

Grove Lime Avocado Oil really lifts the flavour of your food, from salads and dressed vegetables, to marinating and cooking.

It's a delicious point of difference.

$10.95,
250ml.

Pudding to please

We haven't tried the entire Dollop Pudding range, probably because we can't get past the delicious Chocolate Molten Pots, but we like this rich, indulgent, splash-out treat – it has the homemade touch. Visit dolloppuddings.co.nz.

HANDY PACK

Southern Ocean twin packs of salmon slices are very handy portions for the lunchbox. RRP $7.99 for 100g, $13.99 for 200g, and $6.99 for 100g.

True to tradition

We like that Kadods keeps their Original Bhuja Mix all natural, additive-free and the recipe close to family tradition. Spices are mild (too mild for a few of us at Taste) but still, a great lunchbox treat.
